

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air the anti-Kerry
documentary, "Stolen Honor," a few days before the election
is reprehensible.

Sinclair should not be permitted to use
the public airwaves
to advance their own
partisan political agenda.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. I urge the FCC to investigate Sinclair's wrongful misappropriation of
the public airwaves
to advance partisan
political objectives.

We should also
return to FCC rules
that allowed
ownership of no more than five (5) TV stations, none of which could be in the same market.
Sinclair's actions
on "Stolen Honor"
graphically
illustrate that
media consolidation
is bad for democracy. Thank you.
